OCEANIA

REIMAGINED FOR 2027

IKOS OCEANIA WHERE THE IKOS STORY BEGAN

In 2015, Ikos Oceania became the very first Ikos, setting a new benchmark for luxury all-inclusive hospitality and introducing the world to the Ikos way of travelling. Nestled on the lush green peninsula of Halkidiki, where pine forests meet golden beaches and sweeping Aegean views, the resort has welcomed guests for over a decade with its signature warmth and exceptional service.

Today, this iconic destination begins an exciting new chapter, with the first phase of Ikos Oceania's upcoming renovation focused exclusively on thoughtfully redesigning its rooms and suites for 2027, honouring the resort's legacy and local spirit while elevating the stay experience for guests.

A NEW CHAPTER OPENS 2027

At the heart of the design concept is Layers of Time; a celebration of a destination shaped by centuries of history, culture and nature. It reflects the region's rich heritage, where echoes of ancient civilisations meet contemporary Mediterranean living, translating these influences through layered natural materials, tactile textures, warm neutral tones and handcrafted details.

Interiors are inspired by the meeting of forest and sea, embracing soft coastal hues, filtered light and organic forms, while creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. Every room and suite feels light, luxurious, and connected to its surroundings, delivering an enhanced sense of place.

Paired with five à la carte restaurants, a Mediterranean buffet, the signature Dine Out programme, Local Adventure experiences, 24-hour room service under the award-winning Ikos Beyond All Inclusive concept, the renovated accommodation further strengthens Ikos Oceania's position as the resort where the Ikos story began—and continues to evolve.
