The group BARRIÈRE

The Barrière Group is above all a family adventure. A succession of generations of passionate entrepreneurs who write and reinvent the history of French art de vivre.

1912–1962

In 1912, Eugène Cornuché, then director of the casino of Trouville, built a second temple of gambling in Deauville. And to welcome the players, a Hotel: Le Normandy. In la Baule, his friend and partner François André participated in the creation of a similar seaside resort and inaugurated, in 1926, the Hôtel Hermitage. Similarly to Deauville, the success is immediate. In 1927, after taking over the Société des Hôtels et Casino de Deauville (SHCD), this passionate entrepreneur launched the construction of the Hôtel du Golf in Deauville and revolutionized tourism with the innovative concept of the "Resort à la française", offering, in one place, casino, hotels and sport facilities.

François André

1962–1990

Lucien Barrière, the nephew of François André, joined the family business in 1951 and took over after his uncle's death in 1962. Under his leadership, the group structured, modernized and expanded to Cannes, Trouville, Dinard, Royan and Enghien-les-Bains. Deauville becomes the fashionable resort and the biggest names in social life crowd into the establishments of Lucien Barrière. In 1975, he participated in the American Film Festival. In 1980, he created the Société Hôtelière de la Chaîne Lucien Barrière (SHCLB), combining his hotels and casinos.

Lucien Barrière

from 1990 onwards

In the early 1990's, Diane Barrière took over from her father. It consolidates the legend and gives this "style Barrière" inimitable by calling on renowned decorators. Under its aegis, the Group acquires in 1998, the prestigious Brasserie Fouquet's on the Champs-Élysées in Paris, joined by the Hôtel Fouquet's in 2006. Today, his children Joy Desseigne-Barrière and Alexandre Barrière, ensure the Group's development and visibility in France and internationally, faithful to the values of the generations that preceded them.

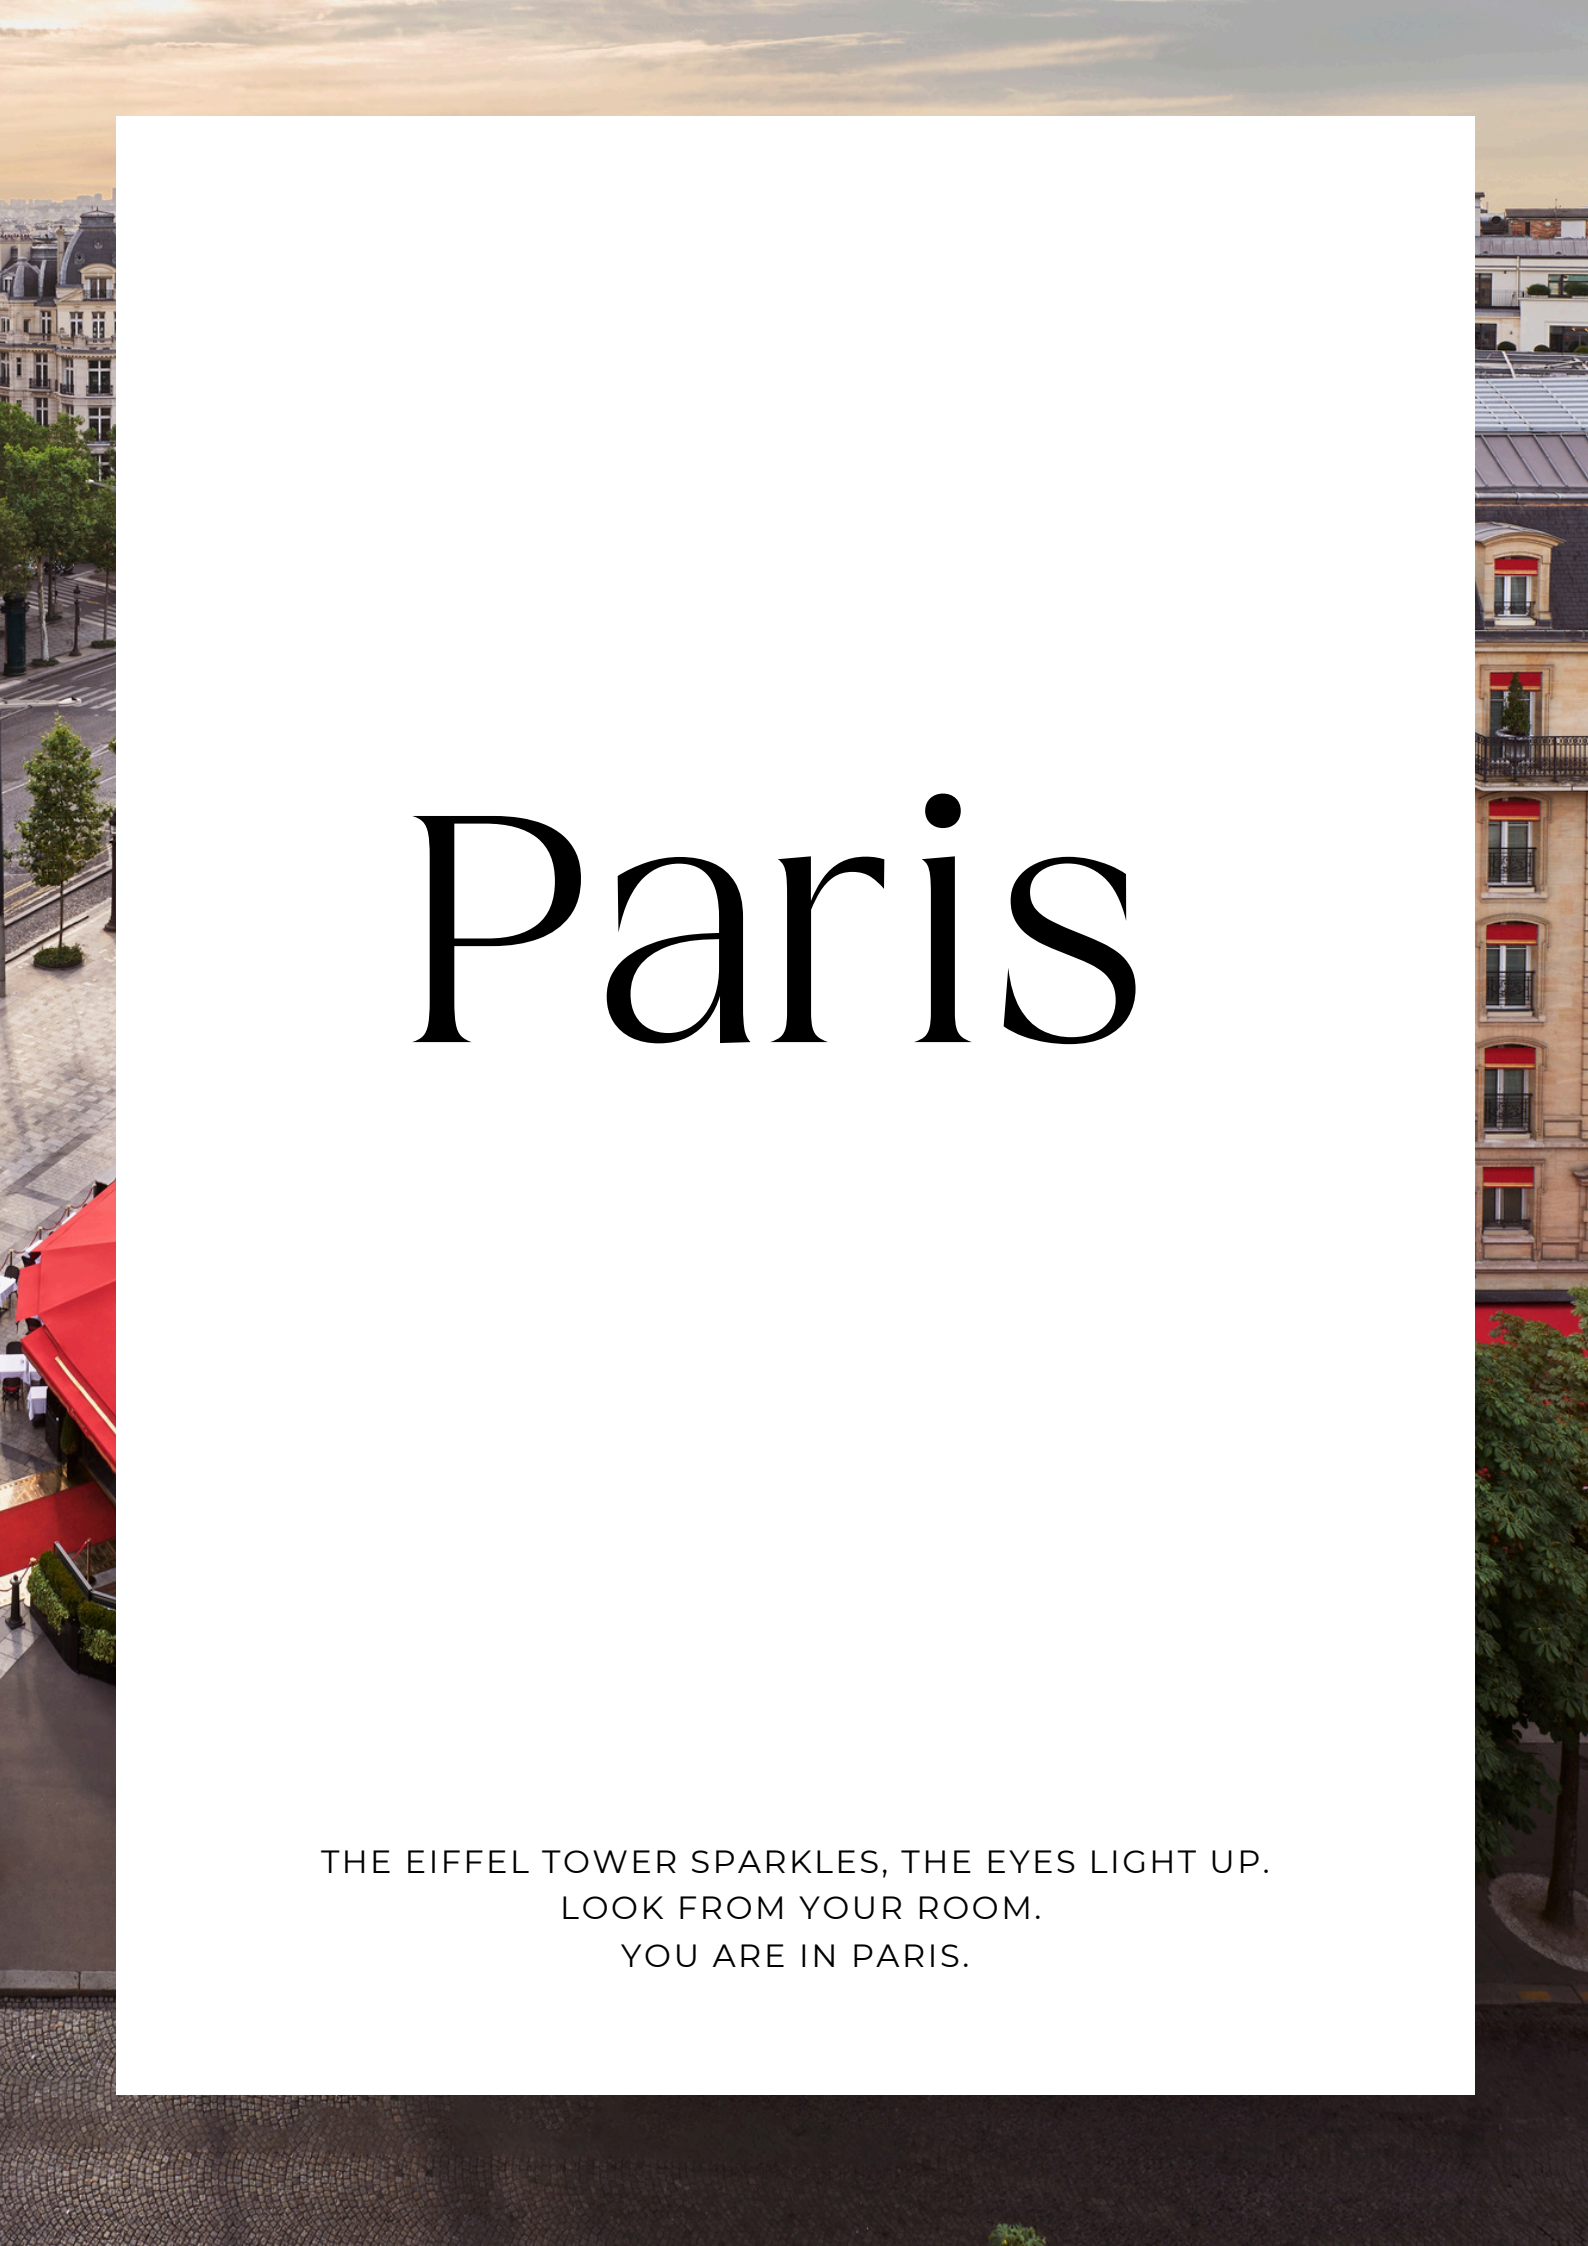

Present on four continents, Barrière now has 20 hotels built in the heart of exceptional destinations. Hosts of mythical personalities, film sets, theaters of prestigious international events, these establishments are filled with stories, with an unalterable soul that has endured for more than a century and inspires every generation or new opening.

FOUQUET'S PARIS

Since 1899, the Brasserie Fouquet's has been living to the rhythm of the capital of the "art de vivre", celebrating its Parisian spirit and putting its gastronomy in the spotlight. Revisiting his classics, Pierre Gagnaire signs a card in osmosis with the authentic atmosphere of the place, where towel rings await each guest - yet another nod to the family house spirit. The snail, sole meunière or millefeuille, from the traditional repertoire of French gastronomy, are reinterpreted with malice.

JOY SIGNATURE RESTAURANT

Nestled on the first floor of the hotel, this unique place, lined with sumptuous emerald green velvet curtains, invites you to an unforgettable sensory experience. The three-star chef Pierre Gagnaire offers a menu designed to sublimate products and seduce the most demanding palates. Lylising salad, langoustine ravioli with snow peas, veal chop with herbs... These delicately crafted creations are just a glimpse of the culinary wonders that await you.

LE MARTA BOUDOIR

Conceived as a jewelry box, with velour panels lining each wall, the bar is dressed in a continuous pattern, ensuring bewitching symmetry and confusion of the senses. Signature cocktails, precious spirits and "deluxe" snacking are lulled by Electro-House music distilled by the best DJs of the genre. An extraordinary place, an invitation to dream, dance and enjoy.

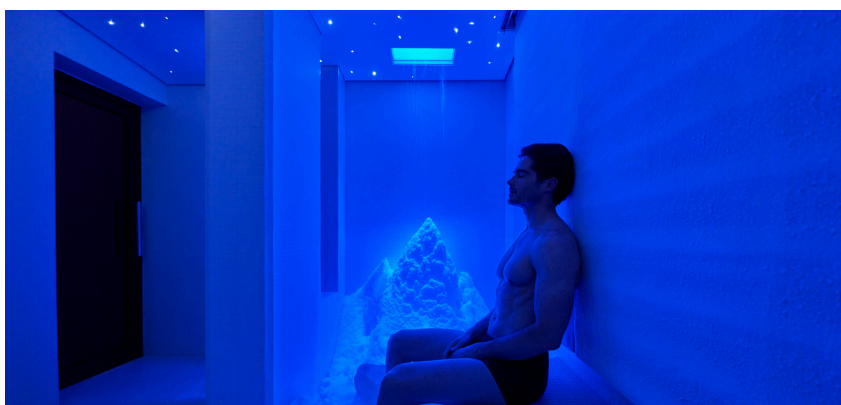

LE MARTA, SUSPENDED GARDEN

When summer comes, Le Marta becomes an exceptional rooftop. Designed as a suspended garden by the talented Cordelia de Castellane, this joyful universe embodies the codes of daydreaming and luxury à la française. A real sonic playground with electrifying DJ sets, Le Marta welcomes guests into a dreamlike, almost fairy-tale atmosphere. At aperitif time, the menu awakens the senses with a selection of creative cocktails and refined snacks.
