The Damask Rose

SEASON

THE ROSE HARVEST SEASON

As the first light touches the terraces of Jabal Akhdar, the rose harvest season begins in quiet beauty. During this fleeting time of bloom, guests staying with us are invited to rise at dawn and step into the fields, gently gathering Damask petals alongside farmers, learning the traditions passed down through generations.

Throughout your stay, you may join a curated series of rose-led experiences — from guided harvest walks and rose-infused breakfasts to distillation rituals and spa journeys — each offering a deeper connection to the fragrance, heritage, and soul of the mountain.
